Video 1 – Introduction

Did you know that it is possible to breathe new life into long dormant blog posts? It absolutely is. In this quick-and-dirty video training I'm going to show you how it's possible in a matter of minutes to create short "Tip-O-Graphics" based on your blog post's content and turn it into a simple graphic (made with MS WORD no less) that can be shared on Pinterest, Instagram, Facebook, G+ and others. And content rich graphics can get shared and generate great traffic back to your original blog post. Best of all by following the videos below you can create and share graphics within a matter of minutes.
